

6516207717.txt

I do support xm radio for up to the minute road and weather reports without the hassle of the old and outdated info on the small stations,as I am a trucker and need this long before I get to any given location. Please consider this bill more carefully before you take away a great service to all the truckers and all the new listeners every day.?